Our dress code

The dress code at Herlufsholm School goes back a long way in our history - all the way back to the 1800s - and the ideas behind it are more relevant now than ever with our current special focus on wellbeing, learning and sustainability.

School clothing creates a sense of belonging within our school community for the students. This sense of belonging provides security and allows for academic development, which, in turn, fosters confidence and academic proficiency among students, contributing to an overall increase in well-being. Thus, the positive learning spiral is established. Furthermore, we see it as an advantage that students and parents do not have to invest in several wardrobes.

The dress code has a classic look and the colors are dark or medium blue and dark or medium gray:

All clothing should be well maintained, clean and appropriately sized. It is expected that students take care of their appearance in general. Clothing should fit properly and hair should be well-groomed and in natural colors.

Piercings in the ears are allowed. Tattoos must not be visible in everyday life.

The school's clothing supplier is Mister in Næstved. Mister provides guidance on the purchase of school clothing for boarding and day students. Mister has prepared a basic package for both boarding and day students. If you want to supplement the basic package, Mister will help you with this. Mister requests that you make an appointment at the store as early as possible. If needed, Mister can also provide tailoring assistance.

At the end of each school year, the school organizes a clothing bazaar with school clothes. Mister is also present here.

It is important that all clothing brought to school is labeled with the student's name. Name tags can be ordered from Mister, who sews names into all clothing purchased in the store.

Overview and additional pieces of clothing

It is possible to buy and sell used school clothes through our Facebook group "Buy/sell Herlufsholm school clothes", where parents can find information and contact each other about buying and selling used school clothes.

At-school weekend

On Saturday after school and on Sundays, students may vary their school attire with the additional options in casual wear; however, everyone must wear a Herlovian shirt for breakfast and dinner.

Travel weekend

When leaving the school, school and/or leisure clothing is worn. If students return to school in other clothing, they must change into school or leisure wear as soon as they return to school.

Field trips

For field trips, study trips, theater visits and other events, students wear school, sports or leisure clothing, maybe halfgala, as per agreement with the teacher.

Laundering of clothes and laundry bundle

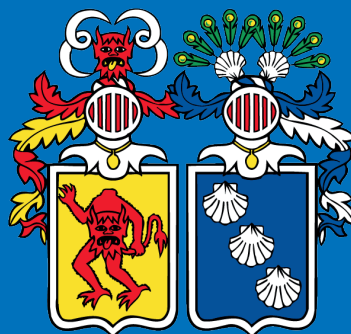

The school's Linen Room offers washing of all parts of the clothing. Students drop off the bundle of dirty clothes in the Laundry on Thursday morning before breakfast and pick up the bundle of clean clothes in the Linen Room on Thursday morning after breakfast.

All student houses have a washing machine and dryer where students can do additional washing of e.g. sportswear. Students use the washing machine and dryer according to the student house instructions and at their own risk.

Dry cleaning

Some of the Herlufsholm clothing cannot be washed, but should be dry cleaned when necessary. The Linen Room facilitates the intake and distribution of cleaned laundry from a local dry cleaner according to the calendar 'Bylt, linnedskift og rens' for the current school year. The cost of dry cleaning is settled quarterly via the dipel's student account.

The clothing regulations are drawn up by the school's standing clothing committee (students and management) and ad hoc clothing committees (day and boarding students across middle and secondary school, parents, boarding teachers and management).
